170 IAC 1-5-2 Purpose and applicability

Authority: IC 8-1-1-3

Affected: IC 8-1-2-42

Sec. 2. (a) This rule is designed to:

(1) Assist the commission in performing a thorough ~~thoroughly~~ and expeditious review of an application ~~expeditiously reviewing a petition for a general rate change~~ by an electing utility for a general rate change. ;
~~The rule is intended to be used to~~

(2) Provide support for the electing utility's rate application ~~petition~~; and to provide supplemental information to facilitate the review of the rate application as filed. The rule is intended as a means to

(3) Reduce or avoid disputes.

(b) ~~The following shall apply to proceedings under this rule~~ Notwithstanding any other provisions of this rule, this rule shall not:

- (1) This rule shall not Limit any rights of the commission or any party to a proceeding to obtain further information from a utility through the discovery process or otherwise;
- (2) ~~The submission of information under this rule shall not~~ Constitute a waiver of any objection by the commission or any party, including the electing utility, to the admission of the information into the record of any proceeding.;

(3) This rule shall not Limit a utility's right in a proceeding to supplement the information it files pursuant to under this rule, or to seek the admission of supplemental information into the record of a proceeding, as the utility deems appropriate.;

(4) This rule shall not Be construed to require the production or disclosure of any information that is subject to or protected by any applicable privilege or to require the disclosure of any information that is found by the commission to be confidential under section 3 of this rule.

~~(b)~~ (c) This rule shall apply at the option of the electing utility. A utility exercising its option to file its case in accordance with this rule shall file a notice of its intent to do so at the time it files its application petition for a general rate change.

(d) This rule and its expedited timeframe are intended to apply to general rate case filings that comply with this rule.

~~(e)~~ (e) A commission finding that the information filed or made available by a utility meets all of the requirements of this rule that are not waived shall constitute a finding as follows After review of the documents filed by the electing utility in its petition for a general rate case, the commission may enter a finding that:

(1) That The test year proposed by the utility in its application for a general rate case is reasonably representative of the electing utility's ongoing operations.;

(2) That The cutoff dates reflected in the information filed by ~~the an~~ electing utility shall be the cutoff dates used in a proceeding hereunder.;

(3) That The accounting methodology reflected in the information proposed by the electing utility conforms with the guidelines set forth in section 5 of this rule; and

(4) The case-in-chief filed by the electing utility meets the requirements of this rule, to the extent not otherwise waived. However, such a finding by the commission is not a finding as to the accuracy or reasonableness of the information. That, commencing as of the date an electing utility's case in chief is deemed in compliance under section 4(d) of this rule, ten (10) months is a reasonable amount of time to complete a proceeding. Accordingly, the presiding administrative law judge and commissioner, if any, assigned to a case will establish procedural dates, including specific dates for the filing of testimony, the holding of a settlement conference, the holding of hearings, the filing of posthearing briefs and proposed orders, and the issuance of a commission order, which will allow completion of the case within ten (10) months from the filing of the electing utility's case in chief. In addition, the prehearing conference order should provide that any petition for reconsideration or rehearing not granted within sixty (60) days of filing will be deemed denied. The commission will allow the presiding administrative law judge and commissioner, upon consideration of the comments and circumstances of the parties, the discretion to equitably divide the time allotted to the various procedural steps based upon all relevant factors. However, in general, approximately three (3) months should be allotted for the preparation and issuance of an order after the submission of the final proposed order. The presiding administrative law judge and presiding commissioner, if any, are authorized to extend the procedural schedule to twelve (12) months for good cause shown. Extensions beyond twelve (12) months will only be allowed in extraordinary circumstances upon the concurrence of a majority of the commissioners.

(d) A commission finding that the information filed or made available by a utility meets the requirements of this rule that are not waived shall be a finding as to the completeness of the information for purposes of this rule, and not a finding as to the accuracy or reasonableness of such information.

(e) (f) This rule shall be available for use by all utilities subject to the jurisdiction of the commission; provided, however, that The commission may waive the requirements of this rule, in whole or in part, under section 4(e)(b) of this rule.
